About us

Annelise Tunggal Jaya is a spice exporter dedicated to bringing the natural goodness of Indonesia to the global market. We focus on providing high-quality ginger in both fresh and powdered forms to meet the needs of the food, pharmaceutical, and beverage industries worldwide.

Spice roots are harvested from the soil of East Java.

Vision

To be a global strategic partner in the supply of high-quality ginger, while promoting the welfare of ginger farming communities in Indonesia through fair and sustainable trading practices.

MISSION

1

Providing wet and dry spices for export with international standards.

2

Serving custom orders from overseas buyers efficiently and competitively.

3

Supporting local farmers through sustainable processing for a reliable export supply chain.

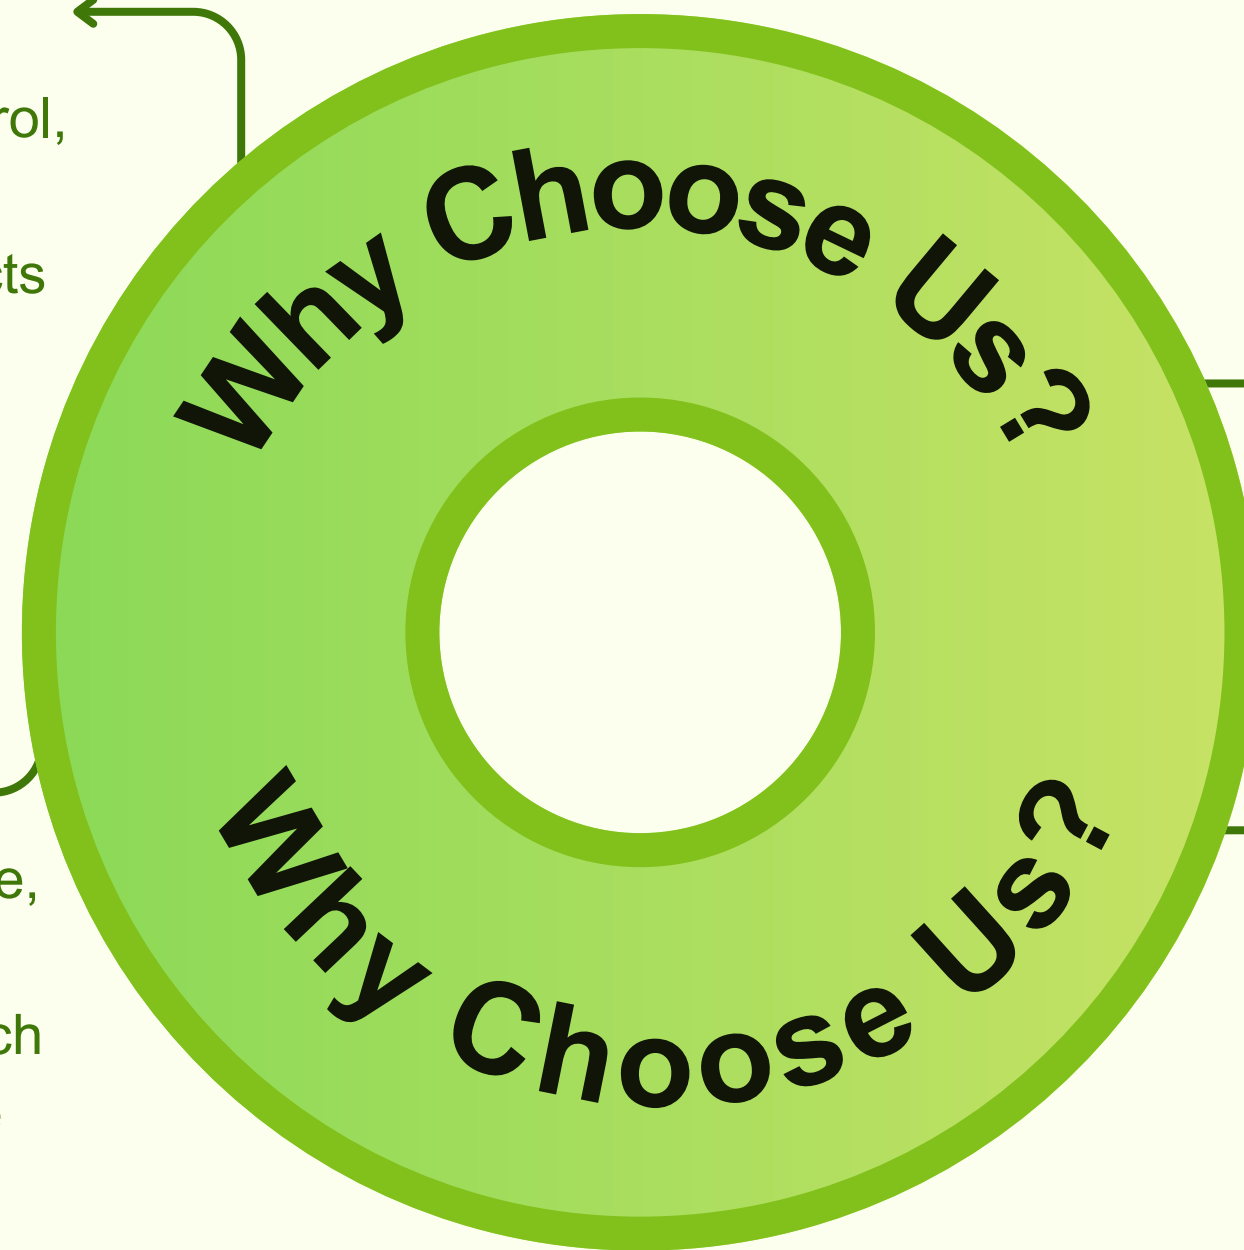

Export Quality Standards

We implement strict quality control, from cleaning and drying to packaging, to ensure our products meet international standards.

Global Shipping

With extensive logistics coverage, we are ready to ship orders to various destination countries such as India, China, Europe, and the United States

Sustainable Partnerships

We support the welfare of local farmers through fair trade systems and training in good cultivation practices.

Integrity & Trust

We guarantee full legality and transparency in every export transaction.

Our choice to concentrate

By limiting ourselves to ginger and turmeric, Annelise Tunggal Jaya is committed to becoming an expert. We don't want to be a provider of many ordinary things; we choose to provide these two Indonesian “green golds” with exceptional quality and guaranteed legality.

Turmeric

In addition to consumption, turmeric is a global solution for safe (food-grade) and environmentally friendly natural coloring, making it a commodity with a very wide market absorption. The soil in our operational area has a level of acidity and nutrients that is very suitable for producing turmeric with a deep orange color—an indicator of high curcumin content that is highly sought after by European and American buyers.

Ginger

Ginger from Indonesia (especially Elephant Ginger and Emprit Ginger) has a sharper aroma and strong gingerol content, making it a high-quality standard in the international market.
